

I am writing to protest changes in the current broadcast ownership rules which have stood for 28 years. I do not believe the proposed changes are beneficial for the flow of information in a democracy as multiple media outlets will be controlled by one owner. I do not believe we can depend entirely on media owners alone to serve the public good. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.